Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, federal courts may hear cases in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000. In that kind of case, called a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff. Explain how these jurisdictional requirements have been met.

1. If the plaintiff is an individual

The plaintiff, (name) _____, is a citizen of the State of (name) _____.

2. If the plaintiff is a corporation

(If more than one plaintiff is named in the complaint, attach an additional page providing the same information for each additional plaintiff.)

the laws of the State of (name) North Carolina, and has its principal place of business in the State of (name) North Carolina.
Or is incorporated under the laws of (foreign nation) N/A,
and has its principal place of business in (name) N/A.

(If more than one defendant is named in the complaint, attach an additional page providing the same information for each additional defendant.)
